DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-38 and 66-67, drawn to a method of glucose level control, classified in class 607, subclass 2.
 - II. Claims 39-64, drawn to an apparatus comprising at least one electrode and circuitry, classified in class 607, subclass 115.
 - III. Claim 65, drawn to a method of insulin level control, classified in class 607, subclass 2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions III and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as one that does not control glucose levels but use with a process that controls insulin levels, a process that promotes bone growth, a process that treats pain, a process for spinal cord stimulation, a process for stimulating the heart, or any other process that applies a therapeutic electrical field to body tissue known in the art via an electrode and related circuitry.
3. Inventions III and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as one that does not control insulin levels but use with a process that controls glucose levels, a process that promotes bone growth, a process that treats pain, a process for spinal cord stimulation, a process for stimulating the heart, or any other process that applies a therapeutic electrical field to body tissue known in the art via an electrode and related circuitry.

4. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. Invention I is a method of glucose level control that results in a significant reduction of glucose levels. Invention II is a method of insulin level control that results in a significant reduction of insulin levels.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to William Dippert on September 28, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 3762

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jessica L. Reidel whose telephone number is (571) 272-2129.

The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Thurs 7-4:30 and every other Friday 7-3:30.
